

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example why media consolidation is not a democratic idea. Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. I strongly oppose their partisan sleaze in airing only a pro Bush ad directly before the election. This shows why their license should not be renewed. Thank you.